ATTACHMENT: New Directions in Psychotherapy and Relational Psychoanalysis

Editor-in-chief, Aysha Begum, PhD

ATTACHMENT is a professional clinical journal for psychologists, psychoanalysts, psychotherapists and clinicians published by The Bowlby Centre, formerly The Centre for Attachment-based Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy. We welcome contributions that further attachment-based relational psychotherapy and contemporary psychoanalytic psychotherapy from colleagues of all clinical orientations.

Call for papers

Deadline for submissions: 1st Jan 2023

We encourage submissions for the designated sections of the journal:

1. Clinical papers:
Advancing the field of attachment-based relational psychotherapy and contemporary psychoanalytic psychotherapy. These clinical papers are reviewed by the editorial team and should aim to have a clear clinical message supported, where appropriate, by theory and relevant referenced literature.
2. Original and research papers:
Advancing the field of attachment-based psychological therapies from all clinical disciplines. These papers are formally peer-reviewed. A second blind copy must be provided.

Manuscript submission

Contributions should be 4,000 to 8,000 words. We also accept shorter reports, reviews of literature/arts from 1,000-3,000 words. Full guidelines for authors including submission instructions can be found at: <https://thebowlbycentre.org.uk/attachment/journal/>
