CALL FOR PAPERS

ATTACHMENT: New Directions in Psychotherapy and Relational Psychoanalysis

Editor-in-chief, Aysha Begum, PhD

ATTACHMENT is a professional journal for psychologists, psychoanalysts, psychotherapists and clinicians, published by The Bowlby Centre. We welcome contributions that advance the field of attachment-based relational psychotherapy and contemporary psychoanalytic psychotherapy.

Papers accepted all year round, but see specific issue deadlines below:

Deadline for submissions: 1st Jan 2024 (Special issue – Siblings)

Deadline for submission: 1st June 2024 (Generic issue)

1. Clinical and research papers:

These clinical papers are reviewed by the editorial team and should aim to have a clear clinical message supported, where appropriate, by theory and relevant referenced literature. Selected papers may be considered for formal peer review.

2. Book and Creative Literature Reviews:

Short reviews of books, films, poetry are accepted.

Manuscript submission

Full guidelines for authors including submission instructions and essential criteria can be found at: <https://thebowlbycentre.org.uk/attachment/journal/>

All submissions must be sent to editor.attachment@gmail.com

We very much appreciate an email notice of your intention to submit in advance of the deadline on editor.attachment@gmail.com. This helps us manage the word count for any given issue.
